

Avian Influenza Risk Mitigation for the Australian Poultry Industry - Regional Workshops on Farm Biosecurity

Dear Producer,

The University of Sydney and Co-Sponsors of this project invite you to indicate your preferences for attendance at one of the planned regional workshops listed below. No cost is involved and lunch is provided.

The purpose of the day is to provide you with a better understanding of biosecurity planning for your farm. You will be given a presentation on information from a National Forum held during August in Sydney. It will provide you with a background to recent research conducted on AI risk mitigation and some of the identified priorities for biosecurity programs for your farm. You will have the opportunity to participate in an open forum as well as discussions in a round-table format.

Venue details will be forwarded to you once participant numbers are finalized (there may be a slight variation in the timing of some of the workshops).

Workshops are scheduled as follows:

Camden NSW Thursday 17 Nov

Maitland NSW Monday 21 Nov

Frankston Vic Tuesday 29 Nov

Bendigo Vic Wednesday 30 Nov

Ipswich Qld Monday 05 Dec

Please return Acceptance Form by 7 November
